Allied Pixel produces live webcast from Congress Hall

MEDIA, PA (November 2014) – Allied Pixel produced a live webcast of the World Affairs Council’s “Great Debates” series. The topic was the American presidency, and speakers included Aaron Miller and David Eisenhower. The event was streamed in multiple resolutions up to HD, with streams optimized for desktop, tablet and smartphone viewing.

This was the fourth conversation in the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia's Stan and Arlene Ginsburg Great Debate Series. It is being broadcast from Congress Hall, where the U.S. Congress met when Philadelphia was the capital from 1790-1800.
