Allied Pixel Adds Travel Production Package

MEDIA, PA (August 2019) – Allied Pixel has added a new flight-friendly equipment package for filming nationally and internationally. It includes a new generation of cameras and lighting equipment. Three carry-on and two checked cases enable a full multi-camera production which previously would have required an entire production truck. The new package debuted on a shoot in Nashville in July.

"Our clients are asking us to shoot nationally and internationally more often," Allied Pixel president Bill Haley said. "This new generation of equipment makes it much more practical."
