Allied Pixel Produces COVID-19 Videos

MEDIA, PA (May 2020) – Allied Pixel is supporting its clients' urgent messaging needs during the coronavirus pandemic. Recent examples include a personalized video message for Neumann University in which president Chris Domes sent an individualized message to each incoming freshman.

Another project was a public service message for the Pennsylvania Parks and Forests Foundation, providing safety tips for visitors.

"We know our clients need a reliable and nimble production partner during this difficult time," Allied Pixel president Bill Haley said. "We're proud to do our part to help get through this."
